

MITSUBISHI

Inspection and Replacement of the Cabin Intake Air Filters Instructions

Toppo BJ S
(GF-H42A)

Description	Page No.
Cabin Air Intake Filters	1
Cabin Air Intake Filters (Con't)	2

Cabin Intake Air Filters

Step-1
Open Passenger Side Door

Step-2
Open Glove Compartment

Step-3
Locate Black Plastic Stay

Step-4
Pull out Black Plastic Stay from right rear of glove compartment.

Step-5
Remove glove compartment.

Step-6
Remove right phillips screw from passenger's side shelf.

Step-7
Remove left phillips screw from passenger's side shelf.

Step-8
Remove passenger's side shelf.

Step-9
Push up to release lower tab on Air Filter Cavity Cover.

Step-10
Remove Air Filter Cavity Cover.

Step-11
Slide out and remove "Lower" Air Filter Element from Cavity.
Inspect Element.

Step-12
Slide out and remove "Upper" Air Filter Element from Cavity.
Inspect Element.

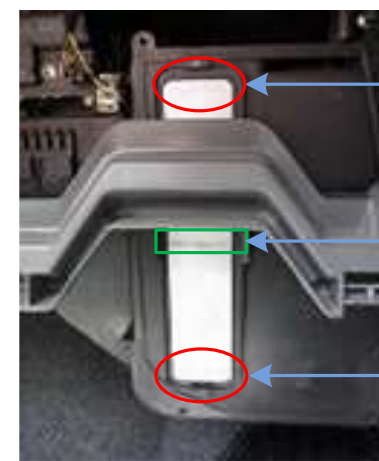

Step-13
Slide in "Good Old" or "New" "Upper" Air Filter Element into Cavity.

Step-14
Slide in "Good Old" or "New" "Lower" Air Filter Element into Cavity.

Caution:
Ensure that the "Rounded" Corners of front plate, faces "Down"

Step-15
Ensure that the "Rounded" Corners of the front plates, mate up with the upper or lower cavity surface, and that the "Flat" edges of the front plates mate up flushly with each other.

Step-16
Line up the upper tab of the Air Filter Cavity Cover and push up slightly.

Step-17
Line up the lower tab of the Air Filter Cavity Cover and push down to engage lower tab into the slot in the lower cavity surface.

Rounded Corners

Flat Edges

Rounded Corners

Cabin Intake
Air Filters (Con't)

Step-18

Reinstall left phillips screw for passenger's side shelf.

Step-19

Reinstall right phillips screw for passenger's side shelf.

Step-20

Reinstall glove compartment.

Step-21

Reinstall Black Plastic Stay into right rear of glove compartment.

Step-22

Ensure that the Black
Plastic Stay flush on wall of glove compartment.

Step-23

Close glove compartment.

Step-24

Close Passenger Side Door.

You're Done...

